Innovators

Noah – for making a map and trying really hard with his writing, showing great excitement.

Jacob – for showing a great attitude towards his learning and trying very hard when working with the adults.

Discoverers

Bailey – excellent work this week especially with his writing.

Dulcie – for great determination with her Gingerbread Man story.

Explorers

Elsie – for an amazing Gingerbread Man story. Elsie has been very focused on her writing, remembering to include punctuation including apostrophes!

Izzy W – for her honesty when discussing her strengths and weaknesses.

Adventurers

Mariah – for impressing the music teacher with her Ukulele playing.

Lottie – for working really hard with her Gingerbread Man story.

Pioneers

Lily-May – for always being a friend to Dee and complementing her on her cooking.

Mr Irwin's Heroes of Hope: * Gracie-Mae * for showing enthusiasm and trying her best in everything she does.
* Daneil * for helping and going above and beyond.

Let's
STICK
Together

Provided by Care for the Family, 'Let's Stick Together' is an informal course that gives helpful advice and top tips to having a healthy relationship with your partner/parent/or even your best friend. 'Let's Stick Together' is very useful, enjoyable and informative - everyone who attends will be given an information pack full of resources to help with the ups and downs of family life.

Join us on Tuesday 28th November at 2pm in the Community Lounge (just before the school pick-up). Interested?

Please sign your name to the list at the School Office.

A big thank you to

'Jules Nelson'

For his kind donation of a laptop for the Innovators. We are very thankful! 😊

If you have any working ICT equipment ie headphones, keyboards, a mouse or remote control toys. We would really appreciate it 😊

Look at our lovely art work in progress ... !

Thank you ... Mrs Stradling

A Monet Masterpiece !
